Dedication

A yearbook entails a great deal more work than meets the eye. Countless hours are spent planning and putting to use the seasoned knowledge of our advisers.

Every year, many days are spent organizing and financing a yearbook. Without the help and advice of these two dedicated men, a yearbook would not exist.

With this thought in mind, the staff of the '69 MUSTANG dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Martin, our Literary Adviser and Mr. Chrabascz, our Business Adviser.

We extend our deepest appreciation and sincere thanks to these two friends of the class of '69.

Daniel Koziol,
Editor-in-Chief

Mr. Clarence L. Martin, Jr.

Monson High's Cross-Country team, now in its third year, finished third in the Western Massachusetts Interscholastic Cross-Country League. Ted Beaulieu placed a very high fifth out of approximately three hundred runners at Amherst. He later went on to Boston as one of the Western Massachusetts competitors.

Monson has a promising young team. All but two (Buddy Richardson, Team Captain; and Greg Dill) out of seven varsity runners will return next year.

Monson Mustangs, forecast as one of the powers in the Quaboag League, fulfilled the predictions by winning its first eight games. Then the nemesis of every basketball coach struck. Starters Jay Courniotes and Buddy Richardson sustained severe foot injuries that side-lined them for several games. The loss of these two players was deeply felt, and the team ended with a 12-7 record.

Toward the end of the season with all five starters back for the first time, the Mustangs reached the play-off for a berth in the Western Massachusetts School Basketball Tourney but bowed out to Turners Falls.

No one girl can be singled out as a star, since the entire season was marked by consistant team effort. Coached by Miss McKenna, the team swept through the Western Massachusetts tournament with 3 wins and 0 losses, making this the best season in the history of Monson High School.

Coach Diane McKenna and Co-Captains Madeline Uliana and Beth Fay receive the Western Massachusetts trophy.

The times they are a changin'.

Gather 'round people wherever you roam;
Admit that the waters around you have grown.

Come, writers and critics, prophesy what you can;
Keep your eyes open, the chance won't come again.

Come, mothers and fathers,
throughout the whole land,
But don't criticize what you can't understand.

Drop out of the new world if you can't lend a hand,
For the times, they are a changin'.
